SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER MANNY MILL

Manny Mill is Chief Executive Officer of Koinonia House National Ministries (KHNM), whose mission is to bridge the gap between the prison inmate and the local church. For 28 years, KHNM has been facilitating the integration of the former inmate into the church, workplace, and society through biblical discipleship.

Coming from a colorful past life, Manny surrendered to Jesus Christ while running from the FBI in Caracas, Venezuela. His first book, "Radical Redemption: The Real Story of Manny Mill" (Moody Publishers) describes his journey from Cuba to prison to Jesus. His most recent book, "Radical Prayer" is also by Moody Publishers.

Manny graduated from Wheaton College (B.A., M.A.) and has been privileged to proclaim the gospel—Christ crucified, buried, resurrected, and returning—in churches, schools, conferences, radio and television programs, and especially behind prison walls in the United States and abroad.

The father of five adult children and grandfather of seven, Manny resides with his wife Barbara in Wheaton, IL.
